Alice Huang is the 1994 winner of the Ithaca College High School Concerto and Solo competition. She was selected from over 100 contestants performing on virtually every orchestral instrument.

Miss Huang is a senior at Farmington High School in Connecticut, where she performs with the wind ensemble, jazz band, concert chorus, and chamber choir. She has studied with Margreet Francis at the Hartt School for the past six years. Last year she soloed with the Hartford Symphony and placed first in the Manchester Young Artists Competition as well as the Music Teachers National Association National High School Piano Competition, Eastern Division. This fall she plans to attend either Princeton or Johns Hopkins University, where she will pursue a degree in International Relations.

The High School Concerto and Solo Competition is an annual event sponsored by the Ithaca College School of Music. This event has attracted talented high school performers from all over the eastern seaboard since its inception in 1980.
